

Dubai Wire and Cable Manufacturer

AI Overview

Ducab and Elsewedy are among the leading wire and cable manufacturers in Dubai, offering a wide range of industrial, electrical, and telecom cables. Leading Manufacturers Ducab is a top UAE-based cable manufacturer known for high-quality power cables, energy solutions, and industrial-scale projects. They supply cables for sectors such as oil, gas, marine, and construction, adhering to international safety standards and offering reliable distribution across the UAE. Elsewedy Electric, originally from Saudi Arabia, has a strong presence in Dubai, specializing in telecom cables, electrical wires, and industrial cables for various applications. They are recognized for their global operations and diverse product range. Other notable manufacturers and suppliers in Dubai include companies listed in directories such as ATNInfo and UAE Results, which provide verified contacts, locations, and product details for over 70 cable and wire suppliers.

Key Considerations When Choosing a Supplier

- Product Variety: Ensure the manufacturer offers the specific type of cable you need, from power and telecom cables to binding wires and marine cables.
- Quality Standards: Select suppliers that comply with internationally accepted safety and quality certifications.
- Pricing and Transparency: Compare rates among suppliers to find competitive and honest pricing.
- Distribution Network: Reliable delivery across Dubai and other Emirates is crucial for timely project execution.
