

Ireland Manufacturer Selling Optical Fiber Cables

AI Overview

Ireland hosts several reputable manufacturers and suppliers of optical fiber cables, including Alltec Fibre, Crescent Infrastructure, Entegro, Wood Communications, and Farnell Ireland. Key Manufacturers and Suppliers

Alltec Fibre Ltd specializes in the installation, testing, and project management of fiber optic networks, serving both public and private sectors with high-quality solutions for large-scale telecommunications projects. Crescent Infrastructure offers structured cabling solutions, including fiber optic installations, with over 34 years of experience. They provide high-density data center cabling compliant with CPR and EU standards, backed by a 25-year warranty. Entegro focuses on designing and deploying gigabit networks, including optical fiber splicing and testing, with expertise in both urban and rural infrastructure planning. Wood Communications is a leading distributor of networking products, including a wide range of fiber optic cables for data communications, telecoms, and security applications. They provide solutions across Ireland and mainland Europe, emphasizing timely delivery and customer-focused service. Farnell Ireland supplies high-speed fiber optic cables suitable for telecommunications, data centers, and networking applications. Their products include single-mode and multimode configurations, designed for reliable performance in demanding environments. NT Connect offers nationwide fiber optic splicing, cabling, and testing services for multimode and single-mode fibers, supporting structured cabling systems across Ireland.

Considerations for Choosing a Supplier
