

Kyrgyzstan Control Distribution Box

AI Overview

Distribution boxes in Kyrgyzstan are available in various types and sizes, with suppliers offering corrugated, vertical, and specialized boxes, while national standards are overseen by the Kyrgyz Center for Standards and Metrology. Types and Suppliers Kyrgyzstan offers a range of distribution boxes, including vertical distribution boxes, corrugated cardboard boxes, and specialized packaging for desserts or cakes. Suppliers provide boxes in multiple layers and dimensions, such as 5-layer corrugated cardboard boxes measuring 585x385x190 mm, with weights ranging from 7,100 kg to 9,100 kg depending on quantity and type (Volza). Companies like Dongfeng cover diverse distribution box types and cabinet products for commercial and industrial use. Buyers can connect with verified manufacturers and importers for bulk orders through platforms like Go4WorldBusiness. Regulatory and Standards Context The Center for Standards and Metrology under the Ministry of Economy and Finance of Kyrgyzstan is responsible for maintaining technical regulations and standards for packaging and distribution. While Kyrgyzstan's national system previously followed Soviet-era standards, modern regulations focus on product safety, with certification required only for items that could endanger human health, such as medical supplies, alcohol, and tobacco. Conformity assessment for standard distribution boxes is generally not mandatory unless the product falls under regulated categories. Trade and Market Access Kyrgyzstan's distribution box suppliers are export-active, and trade intelligence platforms like Volza provide detailed shipment data, supplier reliability, and pricing trends to facilitate procurement decisions. The market includes at least 8 verified active suppliers, offering opportunities for international buyers to source boxes efficiently while ensuring compliance with local standards. Summary In Kyrgyzstan, standard distribution boxes are commercially available in multiple types and sizes, primarily t...
