

Mianning Galvanized Cable Tray Price List

AI Overview

Galvanized cable trays typically range from $0.40 to $25 per meter, depending on type, coating, size, and order quantity. Price Range and Factors The cost of galvanized cable trays varies widely based on material, surface treatment, and design. Hot-dip galvanized (HDG) trays are more durable and suitable for outdoor or corrosive environments, generally costing more than pre-galvanized or powder-coated trays. Prices can range from $0.40 per meter for large-volume orders to $2-$25 per meter for smaller or specialized configurations, with ladder trays and heavy-duty designs at the higher end of the spectrum. Key factors influencing price include: Material type: Galvanized steel is standard; stainless steel or aluminum is more expensive. Tray type: Ladder, perforated, or wire mesh designs affect cost. Surface finish: HDG, powder coating, or epoxy coatings impact durability and price. Order quantity: Bulk orders reduce per-unit cost; small trial orders may incur extra fees. Customization: Non-standard sizes or OEM designs can increase cost. Shipping and installation: Heavier trays and complex installations add to total project cost. Supplier Options Several manufacturers and B2B platforms provide competitive pricing and customization: Jiangsu Holdee Electric Co., Ltd. offers GI and HDG trays in various sizes with annual production capacity exceeding 30,000 tons, exporting globally. Weifang Guqiang Cable Tray Co., Ltd. balances price and quality for medium-volume buyers. Zhonghe Steel (Tianjin) Co., Ltd. offers the lowest per-unit price at $0.40/meter for orders exceeding 50,000 units. Aajjo and similar B2B platforms allow direct inquiries to multiple suppliers, enabling price comparison and customization. Practical Tips For large-scale projects, consider HDG trays for long-term durability despite higher upfront costs. Compare multiple suppliers to optimize cost, quality, and delivery timelines. Factor in installation, shipping, and local labor costs when budgeting. Request custom quotes for non-standard sizes or specialized coatings to...
