

Syrian Precision Distribution Box Design Manufacturer

AI Overview

Technopack, ProPac, Kishkieh-Pack, and Ghali Tech are leading Syrian manufacturers offering precision distribution box design and production solutions. Key Manufacturers

Technopack Company is a prominent corrugated cardboard manufacturer in Syria and the Levant region, with extensive experience since 1984. They specialize in custom-shaped cardboard boxes, trays, and printed designs for high-value products, including food, pharmaceuticals, and electrical appliances. Technopack provides advanced design services, prototype testing, and quality assurance to ensure boxes meet storage, stacking, and distribution requirements .

ProPac operates modern factories in Syria, producing all types of corrugated cartons, including food-grade packaging, medicine boxes, pizza boxes, and agricultural boxes. They offer flexo and offset printing, laminated boxes, and environmentally friendly production techniques, ensuring high-quality, safe, and durable packaging .

Kishkieh-Pack has been serving Syria and the Middle East since 1994, manufacturing custom corrugated boxes, die-cut boxes, and sheets. They focus on high-quality packaging solutions suitable for industrial and commercial distribution .

Ghali Tech provides structured distribution solutions and wholesale supply across defined product categories. With over 30 years of experience in Syria and the Middle East, they combine technical expertise with local market knowledge to support distributors, resellers, and industrial buyers, ensuring proper selection, application, and after-sales support .

Considerations for Choosing a Manufacturer

Customization and Design: Look for companies offering prototype development, digital or full-size printing, and testing for durability and stacking.

Industry Experience: Manufacturers with experience in pharmaceuticals, food, and industrial products can ensure compliance with safety a...
