

Thailand Industrial Switch Wholesale Manufacturers

AI Overview

Thailand hosts several reputable industrial switch manufacturers and distributors, including E.S. International, Sonepar Thailand, SNSK Company, and TAIWAY, offering medium and low voltage switchgear, automation solutions, and electrical components.

Key Manufacturers and Distributors

E.S. International (1991) Co., Ltd. & ESI Trading Co., Ltd. E.S. International specializes in the design and manufacturing of medium and low voltage switchgear for sectors such as retail, airports, data centers, and power plants. ESI Trading Co., Ltd., a Siemens Thailand official distributor, imports high-quality electrical components from Europe and is the sole distributor for Janitza products, providing both wholesale and project-based solutions.

Sonepar Thailand Sonepar is Thailand's largest privately held B2B distributor of electrical and industrial automation products. They supply a wide range of industrial switches, automation systems, and electrical solutions for oil and gas, manufacturing, and other industrial sectors. Sonepar collaborates with top global brands and offers technical support, ensuring compliance and efficiency in industrial operations.

SNSK Company Limited SNSK represents GE Industrial Solutions (now part of ABB) in Thailand and Laos. They provide a comprehensive range of power distribution products, including plug-in boxes, medium voltage transformers, current transformers, surge arrestors, and flexible copper braid connectors. SNSK also stocks hard-to-find spare parts and offers project support for industrial installations.

TAIWAY Electronics Components Co. TAIWAY manufactures toggle, rocker, pushbutton, and micro switches suitable for industrial, energy, and vehicle applications. Their products include low voltage miniature and subminiature switches with IP67-rated enclosures, UL and CUL approvals, and options for ODM/OEM services, making them suitable for...
